

CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

As the islandwide body advising the Planning Department on the General Plan, the Citizens Advisory Committee participated in all phases of plan preparation, culminating in review of the December 1999 Discussion Draft and preparation of the Final Draft General Plan. The CAC held 30 meetings starting in February 1998 and concluding in April 2000. In addition, five CAC task groups held some 20 meetings to address specific topics. CAC members were appointed by Mayor Maryanne Kusaka, with two additional members appointed by the County Council. Collectively, the membership represented all of Kaua'i's communities and a broad range of community organizations and interests. Members who participated throughout the process are listed below.
